What one piece of truth will you acknowledge as an individual and as a board of directors?

What will do you with that truth to work to change?

Are there disparities in your community?

Are there parts of the community where basic needs for survival are not being met?

What are you prepared to do about it?

Are there voices that aren't being heard? Are there people living lives you couldn't even relate to if you tried?

Are they represented at your table? Or are there people from their background that you feel more comfortable with sitting at your table?

What are you willing to do about it?
